

Higher Christian Universities in Sub-Saharan Africa: Prospects and Challenges

Musa A. B. Gaiya
Department of religion and Philosophy
University of Jos, Jos, Nigeria

Outline of Discussion

1. Introduction

- Evolution of private universities in most African countries is a revolution

2. Positive Contributions of Christian universities in Africa

- Promotion of academic excellence
- Christian universities as change agents in sub-Saharan Africa

3. Challenge of Christian universities in Sun-Saharan Africa

- Accreditation
- Gender Balance

4. The Way Forward

- Christian universities in Sub-Saharan Africa should form a consortium in each country
- These consortia should negotiate with respective governments for the establishment of Accreditation Council for Christian Higher Education
- Gender balance should be the goal of every Christian higher education

5. Conclusion