

From the World to the South of Peru: the Experience of Catholic Higher Education in a Diverse Country

3rd Biennial North American Regional Conference on “internationalizing Christian Higher education”

Mg. Carlos Fernando Timaná Kure

Universidad Católica
San Pablo

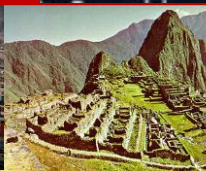

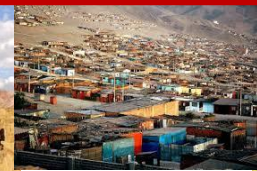

¿Why do we consider Peru a diverse country?

- ✓ Peruvian population: 32 millions (2017)
- ✓ 30% of population lives in Lima Metropolitan Area
- ✓ 52% of population lives in the coast area, 38% lives in the high mountains region and 9,4% lives in jungle zone. (2014)
- ✓ 19% of population speaks quechua,
- ✓ 3rd most speaking language in the country is English with 9% (2015%)
- ✓ 444.448 people speaks aymara/jaqaru (2010)
- ✓ 2% of population is African descendent
- ✓ 0,5% of population is Asian descendent

Jungle
High Mountains
Coast
Aymara people
Quechua speaking people
Arequipa

Universidad Católica San Pablo

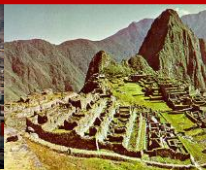

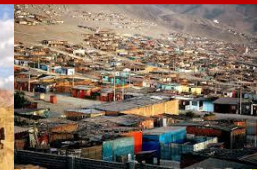

Identity

- ✓ Communion with our Bishop
- ✓ Life of Sacraments
- ✓ Reflection groups about identity with faculty

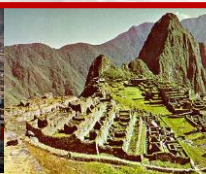

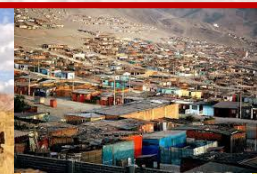

Universidad Católica
San Pablo

Common good and reconciled society

Promoting the meeting of all

Initiatives

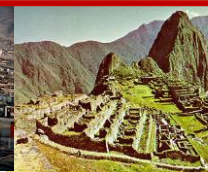

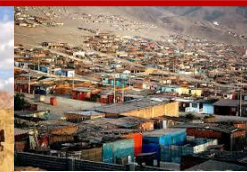

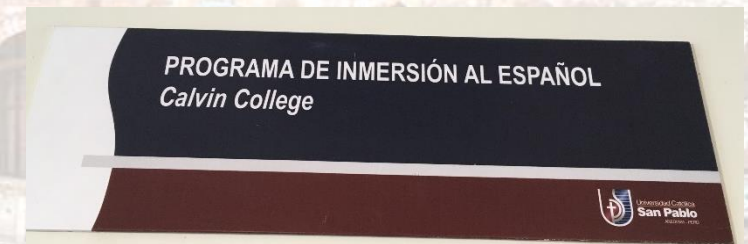

Common good and reconciled society

Humanities
Philosophy
Theology

Common good and reconciled society

Learn and share

Thanks!

